POKER LEGISLATURE.

SUCCEOS ASSURED.

Notes of the Prospects and Progress of the Volkafest Committee.

The work of soliciting subscriptions for the Volkafest goes on well and the success of the festival is already assured. The choice of oracres will be made on Wednesday next at the meeting of the officers and committees. Two brators are required, one for the English oration, the other for that in German. The names of Governor Ireland, Colonel H. B. Andrews and Marshal Goaling are suggested as suitable persons to deliver the English oration, as indeed they are, but preference will, and should be given to Governor Ireland by reason of his position. For the German oration, Judge A. Siemering is undoubtedly the choice of the people, but it is questionable whether the venerable editor's health will permit him to undertake that task.

That Signal,

The telegraph brotherhood deny that the fictitious statement of General Grant's death was used as a signal for the strike. All messages are sent in cyphers, and the instructions to strike were sent in the same way.

Another Horse Thief Jailed.
Deputy Sheriff Van Riper arrested another horse thief on Sunday and placed him in jail. His name is Roman or Guillermo Flores, and he was indiced by the grand jury in March, 1882, but has not since been arrested.

SCHLEICHER'S MONUMENT.

What Has Been Accomplished and What is Still to be those.

The Light commissioner had an interview yesterday with Major Joseph E. Dwyer and learned from that gentleman that upwards of $1600 had been cellected in the city for the Schleicher monument, and there was reason to believe that there would be no difficulty in making up $10000 in San Antonio. In addition to this at least $20.00 was assured from the out counties, and it was questionable whether from all sources the sum of $5000 would not be raised. As regards the form of monument some were in favor of the erection of a statue, but there were serious difficulties in the way, and it was more than probable that the memorial will take the shape of a suitable monument erected over Schleicher's grave. Major Dwyer express d great saits A Reformed Oue's Optnion.

Anna Maxwell, whose real name is Bridgett Foley, and who is an inmate of the Woman's Benevolent association home, has written a long letter to the association, commending the association and telling how good it is.

On the Verge of Matrimony. Fred Wulff, son of Mr. F. A. Wulff, will be united this evening to Linda Groos, daughter of Mr. F. Groos, senior partner in the firm of F. Groos & Co. The marriage will take place at No. 254 East Commerce street.

A Double Marriage.

Mr. Howard Cotton and Mrs. Mattie Vance will be united on Wednesday, and at the assmetime Mr. Jefferson Holmes will expouse Miss Ella Knowles. The happy quartette will leave for Friedericksburg soon after they are married.

Protection. Not Defiance.

The Senior postoffice residents have organized a Home Guard to protect themselves from cattle stealers, and a similar movement is going on elsewhere. The work of the cattle and horse stealer will not be so profitable and olessagat in the lature. and pleasant in the luture.

A Bridegroom Wanted.

A warrant is out for the arrest of Mr. Ernest
Meyer, who was connected with the Tyroleans, and who was recently married in Waco.
He absconded with a lady's trunk, has omitted to repay a loan of $25 from 5-mmers & Peterson, and has done other things that he ought not to have done.

Milliam Steptoe appeared before Justice Adam yesterday to answer the charge of having some other fellow's horse. He borrowed that horse and then sold it. By sophistical argument he tried to prove he was justified in doing so, but the argument did not work, and Steptoe went back to jail in default of a $500 bond. The LIGHT is glad to learn that an effort is to be made by the principal citizens of the city and county to secure legislation for the especial benefit of youthful criminals, not so much as the means to provide punishment as for correction of the bad boys. Of the need of this enactment there can be no doubt, and the Light has, on many occasions, called attention to this especial want. The cases and arguments adduced in yesterday's issue are only others of the many instances that reach unmistakable lessons and are stirring the people to a wise action.
